Touring Incredible India

Are you a bona-fide world traveler - or just an armchair one? Either way, this is the event, the experience, for you. You'll be visiting one of the oldest civilizations in the world, rich with the sights, sounds and foods of the Indian sub-continent – all without having to leave Mid-Michigan! You'll learn about India's traditions and arts and architecture, clothing and exotic henna designs, you'll gain a grasp of Indian history and politics, and you'll even enjoy the fragrant spices and smells of food! The Friends of the Library are offering a two-hour immersion into the wonders of the Indian culture, complete with power point presentation and a sampling of a number of authentic culinary dishes.

Mark your calendars for the Friends' Fall Membership Event on Saturday, October 1, starting at 1 p.m. in the Community Room. This year Friend's member Anshu Varma will bring the marvels of the Indian culture to entertain and inform us.

The Fall Membership Event is an annual tribute to all Okemos Friends' members: a thank-you for the support they give to the Okemos Library. In addition, the event provides an opportunity for guests and the public to get acquainted with the Friends' organization.

The Friends' Board of Directors invites all members of the Friends of the Okemos Library to join us. The event is free for current Friends' members. If you are interested in becoming a member of the Friends please join us at this event. The cost is $8.00 for guests, and if you join, the cost of this event will be applied toward the annual membership dues.

Please be aware that the number of people accommodated by the Okemos Library Community Room is limited. All attending will need to have reservations. Non-members must prepay to secure their reservations. Please contact the Library Information Desk to reserve your place. MAKE YOUR RESERVATION TODAY! If you have additional questions, please contact Cecelia Kramer, 517-349-3297.
